We have the honor to acknowledge receipt of your letter
No. G1700/ dated the 4th instand in reply we regret very much that through an oversight some of the items in our bill were charged at a higher rate than the one mentioned in our price list. We are now enclosing herewith a revised bill which we trust will be found in order and enable you to send us a cheque in settlement of same.

the 24 lines said to have been returned have not reached us and expect to get them by the next post. However we have charged you only for the 16 lines retained by you.

We extremely regret that the alternate current motor has not yet arrived, or otherwise we should have sent it to you immediately.
If desired you may keep back about Rs. 300/-- from Rs. 3886/-- being the amount of our bill, and the same may be paid after the motor has been delivered. Trusting this will be found in order,

" We have the honor to acknowledge receipt of your letter No. G/6715 dated the 25th instant enclosing Rs. 500/- amount of which we have placed to your credit as per enclosed receipt duly stamped and signed which we trust will be found in order.

There is a small balance of Rs. 42/9/- for ribbons and types supplied, which amount we shall thank you to remit at your convenience to enable us to adjust our books.

We further beg to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. G/6796 dated the 25th instant and the D.G. motor referred to therein has safely been received.

With regard to the "Multigraph Manual" we were somewhat surprised to get it back from the Post Office with a remark " Refused ". We are now sending it under separate cover and shall thank you to acknowledge receipt.

Thanking you for the remittance."
